A REBEL POEM.

There is no particular objection to be made to Democratic poetry—if poetry ever can be political—but it seems to us that it is rather late for Rebel verses to be published in Northern papers. The following poem is worse than a eulogy of treason; it is an arraignment of the North as criminal, and of Union Soldiers as murderers. It appeared in the Sunday Mercury, and was written by George R. Wedding, editor of the Dental Office and Laboratory, a monthly paper published by Johnson & Lund, of this city:

THE SOUTHERN DEAD.

BY GEO. R. WELDING.

Fathers and sons in their long, last rest,
Six inches of earth o'er the patriot's breast;
Whole acres of graves—a nation slain—
Was murder like this since the days of Cain?
From the Gulf to Potomac, far and wide,
They sleep in the trenches, side by side;
On the mountain side, in the deep blue glen,
Or hid by the leaves from the sight of men;
Butchered on fields which their fathers tilled:
Shot, stabbed and brained, as cattle are killed.
Oh, men of the North! when you spent your ire
In shot and shell, and murder and fire—
When you studded the earth with a nation's stain,
And sprinkled the ground with blood like rain—
Did your Bibles teach you to rule—or kill?
Is there no one higher than your mad will?
Did your "Declaration" cause these graves,
Free men of negroes—of white men slaves?
Through the fiery gates of battle they sped;
On, on to the rest of the martyred dead;
On the sun-burned fields, by the moaning sea,
They gave their graves to Liberty;
Over their graves no prayers are said—
No hot tears drop on their lowly head;
Yet Heaven's sweet dews fall softly there,
And evening winds breathe a loving prayer.
Virginia's sons! oh, watch and wait
Over your dead in tearless state;
The bolt and brand is in hand Divine;
God will avenge you, for "Vengeance is mine."
Long after the grasses have knit o'er the sod,
Long after their souls have ascended to God,
Shall Deity marshall his conquering fire
Over their mounds in his fearfulest ire.
Woe, woe to the North, and woe to the man,
When Justice shall march, with God in the van.

MISS TIGGS' SECRET.

Miss Tiggs was not the legitimate and accepted form of old maid; or, in other words, Miss Tiggs was not tall, scraggy, brim and sharp nosed. On the contrary, Miss Tiggs was of the roley-poley order short, plump and full faced, and without a bit more primness than was necessary to keep up the dignity of the profession into which the fortune of life had cast her, for Miss Tiggs kept a boarding school for young ladies, and we all know that dignity is as essential in keeping young ladies from too great exuberance, as sternness is for young gentlemen afflicted with the same complaint.

Miss Tiggs's school was fashionable, the number of her scholors, according to her circular, being "limited," but, according to her private programme, there being always an opening for one more. In this respect, Miss Tiggs's school was not unlike a street car—never full. It was, as she always expressed it to the parents, "more like an elegant home than an institution of learning." And so it was, in a great degree, for there's no denying the fact that the little woman did all she could to make her young ladies comfortable, and, while she did not ignore style, put forth her most strenuous efforts toward the solidities of life, and managed to win the affections of her pupils, not only by that liberality, but by the genuine kindness of her heart and her forgiving disposition. Many a little breaking away form discipline did Miss Tiggs overlook, when she found that it did not proceed from willfulness or wickedness—an overlooking which was apt to encourage the young ladies in many a droll escapade, but also had the advantage of restraining them from doing anything they felt could give Miss Leonora Tiggs real pain.

Besides her pupils, Miss Leonora had two nephews—one an inmate of the establishment, and one away at school in a distant city at Miss Tiggs's expense, whom she had not seen for nearly five years. The one who was an inmate of the establishment, a youth of twenty, Walter Askham by name, was under continual sentence of banishment, or, in other words, since he had reached the mature age of fifteen, had been told daily that he was too old to be a dweller in the same house with his aunt's twenty-five rosebuds, and that he must make up his mind to immediate removal. He had made up his mind, but somehow the sentence, though reiterated almost daily, was never carried into effect, and so this wolf remained in the fold.

It is, however, only giving the——, as personified in Walter Askham, his due, to declare that during those five years he had behaved with wondrous propriety. He had given up romping with the girls and playing practical jokes on them. He had not been known, for longer than that, to dress any of them up in his clothes, or himself in theirs, and in fact had attained to the character of a most exemplary young man, having risen in the employ of Burns, Brown & Co., during that five years, from only an errand boy to the reponsible position of second book-keeper, with a salary not to be sneezed at for a young man of twenty.

To say that Walter, out of all the twenty-five charming pupils of Miss Leonora, did not see anything to charm him into breaking through that terrible line of demarkation his aunt had laid down for him, would be saying almost more than human nature is capable of. There was one, the neatest and sweetest little body that ever ate bread and butter—which her name it was Kate Dillon, and her age sweet sixteen—that he was especially fond of; and that state of things had existed for four years, since the very first day she had been taken into Miss Tiggs's school, which happened in this way:

When Miss Tiggs went to school herself, she had an intimate, Lillie Price by name, with whom the school companionship was perpetuated. Lillie married, and after six years of matrimony was left a widow with one daughter. Six years more struggle with the world as a widow, and Lillie one day laid down the load of life, and left this daughter to the tender mercies of the world as embodied in Miss Leonora Tiggs, who closed the eyes of the dying woman, and breathed in her ear comforting assurance that Katie should never want a mother while she lived; and well she kept her promise, for in the four years she had been under her hands, she had grown into as elegant a little lady as could be found in a summer day's walk, and as wonderfully in love with Walter Askham as it was possible to be. All this could not help leaking out, and into Miss Tiggs's eyes and ears, and, as a consequence, troubled her amazingly. One restriction after the other had she put on the couple, but all seemed to be of no avail, and simply made the young lovers regard her as a tyrant and one whose breast was not susceptible of the grand passion.

At last came the climax. Miss Tiggs entered the breckfast room one morning noiselessly and suddenly, and caught Miss Katie kissing Walter right upon the lips. This was too much, and the fiat went forth. Had she caught Walter kissing Katie, there might have been some condoning, but the act reversed showed malice prepense, and on the spot the sentence of separation went forth—separation, not banishment for Walter from the Tiggs mansion—for Miss Leonora could not so suddently make up her mind to so serious a step; but a rigid confinement of Kate to the girls' apartments, and the changing of Walter's room, so that he would be isolated and the lovers have no chance of meeting. This was the terrible sentence of Miss Tiggs, and a sentence that was carried immediately into effect, Miss Tiggs announcing to Walter, as she rebuked him for his heinous immorality, that within a very few days he would have an opportunity of judging what he ought to be, by taking as his exemplar his cousin Bob, who was to spend a month from school with her for the first time in five years. This fact did not interest Walter much, for really nothing did interest him save Katie, and the only point on which he could dwell in connection with the new comer, was curiosity. Cousin Bob, according to aunt Leonora's idea, was perfection. He was only thirteen, but an Admirable Crichton. What he couldn't do wasn't worth doing; and as to good looks, he had more of them than he knew what to do with, and was expected with them every hour at Miss Tiggs's establishment.

To change the scene to the girls' apartments. Poor Katie had now been one whole week that she had not seen Walter, and she was not only broken hearted, but desperate. The gossip among the coming cousin Bob, did not move her one bit. She knew nothing, could think of nothing, but Walter, and as long as Miss Tiggs was in the house, it would be impossible for her to see him; and Miss Tiggs was always in when Walter was. All the girls pitied Katie, but what could all the girls do against Fate? But there was one very little girl, and as reckless as she was little, and as full of fun as she was reckless. This very little girl was always up to all the mischief that could be hatched, and had often been heard solemnly to bemoan the ancient days when the girls had such fun—when they used to dress up in Walter's clothes and play various pranks, generally ending in some sort of punishment from Miss Tiggs, which was only looked upon as the salt that flavored the affair. This very little girl it was, putting that and that together, who one day said Katie, who was only waiting for a proper opportunity to burst into real hearty cry:

"Why don't you dress up and pass yourself off with Miss Tiggs for cousin Bob, and then you can see Walter as much as you please?"

Now it was a dreadful thing for this very little girl to say such a wicked thing as this, so very little as she was, too; but what shall we say of Katie, who took her as quick as lighting in her arms, and said.

"Oh, you dear little creature! how smart you are! I'll do it, right away."

CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.

The very late day fixed by the Republican County Committees of Potter and Tioga, for holding their respective County Conventions, if they propose to select Congressional Conferees at the same time, gives the candidate a very poor show for a thorough canvass of this large district. Most of the other districts in the State have made nominations and opened the contest. If the Conference in this district is to be postponed until after the Convention in Tioga, together with the necessary delay in fixing the time and place for holding the Congressional Conference, our candidate will hardly have sufficient time to get his tickets printed and distributed. To render success certain requires energetic work and harmony, both in this district. The Democracy will put forth their strongest man, and make a strong effort to elect him. We would suggest to the County Committees of Potter, and Tioga, that they appoint Conferees at an early day, and have the Conference meet soon. This is but justice to our candidate, and more surely secures his election.

We clip the above from the Potter county Journal and endorse the suggestions of that paper.

What do the Republican Committees of Tioga and Potter Counties mean in postponing their Conventions till the middle of September? The Conferee Convention should be held, not later than the first week in September. The Journal is right in saying that any other course than this, "gives the candidate a very poor show for a thorough canvass of this large district.

Let the programme be changed, and let the conferees be appointed as speedily as possible, and the conferee Convention called not later than the sixth of September. And then with Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong as our standard bearer let us open the Campaign with earnestness and vigor, and give the renegade know-nothing and Old Line Whig—L. A. Mackey, and the whole copperhead party that is willing to be led by said renegade the soundest threshing they have ever received in this district.

We do hope that the suggestion of the Potter Journal, to the Committees of Potter and Tioga, to appoint their conferees at an early day, will be accepted and acted upon. It is the only true policy, and the only way to do justice to our Candidate, and the "more surely secure his election.

So far as we are concerned, we shall treat the nomination of Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong as already made, and fight it out on that line. We know that he is the unanimous choice of this county, as he is of all the counties in the District, and we know more, and have no hesitancy in saying, that he is the best, truest and strongest man that has ever represented this District. In view of these facts, and for these reasons we will open the Congressional campaign now, and not suffer our district to be jeopardised, nor our cause injured by dilatory committees, or delayed conferee conventions. Armstrong and Victory is our motto., and so far as Centre County and the Bellefonte Republican are concerned, the campaign has already opened.

ADVANCE OF REPUBLICANISM.

The Newark Courier remarks, in the progress of war in Europe the long despondent Republicans of those countries may now remark with Iago, "whether Napoleon beats William or William Napoleon, either event contributes to our gain." The effect of war must in any event do much to favor Republicanism there. Besides the probabilities which may eventuate in making France a Republic, it will have the effect to stimulate Republicanism in Spain, admonish the people everywhere of the danger of placing their destinies in the hands of one man, lead them to reflect on the consequences, aside from cost of immense military establishments—the necessity for which exists only to support the ambition and execute the plans of monarches, who are seldom in sympathy with the welfare of the people. From Spain we learn that, notwithstanding the silence maintained and the compact with France and apparent sympathy with her in her struggle with Prussia, there is a deep feeling of satisfaction over the misfortunes of the Emperor, for whom no love is felt. With every upheaval in Europe liberalism has gained, and we may reasonably expect that it will be so in the present instance. It would be placing a low estimate on human sagacity to suppose it possible for such shocks and sacrifices not to be followed by reflection on the part of the masses, and under the burning sun of civilization and increasing intelligence, reflection is the parent of progress in improvement and human rights.

IMPORTANT NEWS—A CONFLICT WITH COWHIDES.—The Cooly of the Reporter has challanged some "giant weighing 251 lbs, to a cow-hiding match," to "be conducted according to the code of honor" and to meet "on the fair ground" on "Thursday of county fair week" with "cow-hides and coffee for two," and invites thousands to come and witness the gladiatorial practices" of Kurtz.

The visitors had better, on that occasion, keep to the windward of Fred., or arm themselves with penny-royal or the like, should the day be warm and sultry. "Flee Fleeck."

THE Chicago Post says, "in a[ll] his reverses, Napoleon still [re]tains the confidence of his people. [He] will be popular in France, [and] when the plebiscite [is] taken he will [be] re-[elected] by an overwhelming majority. He—runs well [with] the DISGUSTED DEMOCRAT.

MEEK: POOR MEEK: WE PITY HIM.

Political hydrophobia has seized Meek and the Bourbons, and in their madness, snap and slime at everything and every body that crosses their path, and when their turpitude is pointed out they show method in their madness, and copperhead like, dart, forth their fangs in every direction careing little who receives the venom, so that they gain their object.

How has S. T. Shugert been used by this band of political conspirators? MEEK in his Watchman inserts a communication apparently extoling Hon. S. T. Shugert and insisting on his renomination for the Senate, at the very time Alexander and Meek were cohooting with Jim Burns Gen. Potter and Andy Reed, to defeat him, and thus compel Mr. Sugert, who knew the brazen deception, intrigue and covert treason of this junto, to publish in the Watchman his declination of the professed and hypocritical honor, and at the same time in his second reason for so-doing, giving them to understand that he knew all about the tricks and schemes of Meek and Alexander and their "Missionaries,"—Burns, Potter and company, and that he would prevent them from politically cutting his throat.

Mr. Shugert was right. He, knew that Alexander and Meek were fixed upon nolens volens, by Burns, Potter &Co.; as the candidates to do their Legislative plundering, which Mr Shugert would refrain from; and for this he must be sacrificed.

Next we find Meek, in his Watchman, referring to the Republican convention which nominated Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong for Congress, saying "notwithstanding Gen. James A. Beaver, a white Republican Soldier, as a citizen of our own county, was a candidate for that position" and again, "Wilson, another stay-at-home like Armstrong, was nominated over Beaver the one legged soldier?

These are the sayings of Meek in 1870. This year he crys and blubbers that the one legged soldier should not have been nominated "over a stay at home."

Meek did not stay at home. Of course not. He did not denounce the one legged soldier, and his companions in arms, as 'Lincolns hirelings." He did not slander and vilify the one legged soldier when his fellow-citizens nominated him for the Assembly in 1865. Gen. Beaver was nobody then. He was a Lincoln Hireling." No! no! Meek did not do that in his Watchman. This is the political friendship of Meek which the knave and traitor finds now necessary to keep up with those whom mean the more effectually to ruin with their damning praise.

He is reversing both the principles and the practices of the Apostles, by becoming all things to all men, not to serve others, but himself, and he "trys all things" only to secure office and plunder.

Again, Meek in his convulsions to cover his venality and approaching political Suicide, bawls out "damned spot! out I say?" requiets his stricken conscience and pretends to find relief, by publishing that Armstrong and Wilson's nominations were not unanimous. Ch Meek! to what straights art thou driven! Let us see.

But how with the Guerrilla ticket? Now mark the figures.

|---|---|
| Meek had | 42 |
| Kurtz " | 8 |
| Munson " | 5 |
| Kelsh " | 1 |
| Hunter " | 14—28 |
| Majority | 14 |

Meek says his nomination was made unanimous, which is simply a falsehood, as many of the delegates after the adjournment were loud in their denouncement, asserting that the Ring had tricked them out of the nomination; but they would find nominations were not elections. Meek's nomination was not unanimous.

This is why Meek is endeavoring to cover his Jackal propensities by his cry of "Nigger," "Bill Brown" &c.

But the political Fitzhew will find that the honest yeomanry of the county know him but to despise him, and that on the second Tuesday of October next there will be none found so mean as to do him reverance.

Armstrong's majority in the Republican convention was 37, Meek's majority in the Democratic convention was 14 votes. There were 28 votes against him and only 25 against Armstrong and yet Meek claims that his vote was unanimous, and sneeringly asks for the unanimous vote of Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong.

Kurtz and the Berichter man—Stover swallows the nomination of Meek, like whipped Spanicls, Chinese Coolies, as they are, but will the rank and file—the masses of the Democratic party—swallow this nomination—this choice of P. G. Meek, who lacked 14 votes of being the unanimous nominee of the party?

For the REPUBLICAN.

BELLEFONTE, August 19th, 1870.

COL. BROWN:—As you are no doubt aware, J. McDivitt was a delegate to our—the Democratic—convention, from Half Moon township. He was duly elected and instructed for D. G. Bush. On the day of convention, he came to town, was seen in the neighborhood of Reynolds & Co's Bank, engaged in very earnest conversation with C. T. Alexander. When the convention assembled Mr. McDivitt took his seat, and when the vote was taken, voted for Mr. Alexander instead of D. G. Bush, Esq. Thus violating his instructions. Now the inquiry naturally arises, how much scrip did Mr. McDivitt receive for his vote? We think there can be no doubt in his having obtained money. For the reason that men do not generally stultify themselves without first having received their price. McDivitts price may have been small. He violated his instructions, this is certain. How much money he received for so doing, is not so certain. Will Democrats support a ticket nominated in this way? Will they endorse the action of a purchased and packed convention? I for one will not do so, and I know twenty others right here in Bellefonte who will not support the nominees of that convention. Let McDivitt enjoy the reward of his infamy, while we teach certain men, honest, and that a few selfish plied men in Bellefonte are atic party.

DISGUSTED DEMOCRAT.

For the REPUBLICAN.

AARONSBURG, Aug. 20th, 1870.

COL. BROWN:—In my first communication I let you know of the tricks of the Bellefonte Ring, to force J. G. Meyer, to decline a re-nomination &c. Was I not correct? Have not Alexander and Meek obtained their nomination, just as I told you they would? We are now somewhat puzzled to ascertain the object, these standing candidates have in view, and what prompted them to use such means as they have done to get themselves nominated and elected.

They are both young men, and they have each of them been elected twice to the Legislature. Should not this satisfy them, and induce them to permit favors to go round? There is not a township in the county, but could find a dozen of Democrats as well qualified and as disinterested in their political principles, and better entitled to the nomination at this time, than either Mr. Meek or Alexander. They must believe, judging from their actions, that there are no others in the county that are fit, or can represent it in the Senate or House. Not a single pair—not a Democrat save and except them two selves—Alexander and Meek.

We believed that our member, Mr. Meyer should be re-nominated, that he was as well qualified to discharge the duties of that office, as either of them, and much their superior in political honesty.

I have just finished reading this weeks Reporter and feel contempt for Fred Kurtz. How could I feel otherwise? We looked for Fred to act in his Reporter free and independent, so far at least, as respects our local ticket, and he promised faithfully to do so; but instead of this, we find him acting with duplicity and hypocrasy towards his friends, and with cringing survility, to those who have ever held him, as you have frequently truthfully stated, in contempt.

Kurtz knew that My Meyer would decline a renomination in time to prepare himself as his successor. He knew that Mr. Meek, was straining every nerve to have himself nominated, and notwithstanding this knowledge, Fred pretended to us, that he was for nominating a new man, and defeating Meek and the Bellefonte Ring. He denounced the manner, in which Meek was acting. Openly declared that it would devide the Democratic party.

Now we find him, out for Meek in the most sycophantic style. When it was decided that Mr. Meyer should decline a nomination, Alexander, Meek and their "missionaries" visited our townships, laying plans to secure the delegates. Treasurer Wolf and Lawyer Potter visited Dr. Hillibish in Miles tp., and made arrangements to select the men—certain men, for delegates. In our township Meek and Alexander got Yeager to act sly and procure the delegates. Those who were opposed to taking the candidates from Bellefonte at this time, fixed upon Dr. Deshler and three others to represent the township, provided there would be no objection. They were sounded, and when it was ascertained they would be for a new man, Yeager, went Secretly to work to oppose it. Thus you perceive the double-dealing of the gentleman.

The contest was warm and Hosterman, Stover, Meyer, and Lembert were elected by a small majority. It was known that Hosterman was in favor of Fred Kurtz on the first ballot, and a new man after that. Dr. Deshler is one of our most active Democrats and goes in for the good of the party; but he is not a favorite with the Bellefonte Ring, and his defeat has caused much dissatisfaction, that the Meekites cannot quiet. They did not dare to have the delegates insructed for Meek at the election, and he will find that there are many Democrats here, that will not submit longer to his dictation, nor obey his cry of stick to the ticket. After Mr. Meyer, Capt. Hunter was our choice.

They, (Meekites) played the same trick in Penn tp., but their great trick was in Gregg. FOURTEEN men met and chose SIX delegates to represent 300 voters. Meek received 8 votes and Kurtz 6 votes. Can such trickery be binding on the Democracy of Gregg, who were for nominating a new candidate? We will see.

It would appear now that Fred Kurtz in becoming a candidate, did so to deceive the party, to assist Meek and the Bellefonte Ring, who considered him "a dead weight on the party, when on the Legislative ticket a few years ago. More anon. HAINES.

For the REPUBLICAN.

EDS. REPUBLICAN:—We wonder if the Editor of the Reporter has forgotten that there is still a sense of common decency existing among a majority of his readers? He very evidently had either forgotten, or entirely ignored this little fact, when he published that literary hash which appeared in the Reporter, a short time since, over the signatures of two as contemptible, presumptuous noddies as can be found disgracing the Loop.

It is well known that Kurtz continues to publish, contrary to his notice to correspondents who indulge in personalities, all that "Tussey Mountain" booby sends him, in order to retain his supposed influence; and it is as well known that Kurtz and the Democratic party would be much richer without such influence. Such inconsistency is too bold to be mistaken.

As for the two correspondents and their articles, they are too disgusting, presumptuous and contemptible to be seen outside of the Tussey Mountains from which they sprang, and which are so congenial to their classical culture, their ruling propensities, and even their cognomen. For one of these to call a family respectable, is the greatest reproach he could heap upon it.

With the name and history of one of these, we would not be solicitous about having our character published, but would be fully content to live ingloriously in some mountain retreat, leaving other and better people alone; but they arouse, with just indignation, and place us in a more secure, secluded and deserved habitation.

If it is any gratification to them, we would say that their true names are known: they are subjects of just concontempt, since the effrontery of parties who can, unblushingly, publish their own infamy, is enough to disgust any one

The Editor of the Reporter could not better vindicate his claim to good sense and consistency, or better serve a patronizing and discriminating public than by treating such reproaches with silent contempt.

THE FRANCE—PRUSSIAN WAR.

HOW THE DEAD SOLDIERS ARE TO BE IDENTIFIED.

A Berlin letter in the London Telegraph says:

Mark one instance of the German practical spirit as a proof of the fashion after which these Teutons prepare to fight. In recent wars popular feeling has demanded that rank and file, captains and generals, shall be equally and impartially mentioned in the lists of the slain; but difficulties have arisen, because the enemy cannot know the dead men's names, and, when the muster roll is called after battle the missing may be only wounded or prisoners. Germany has, in her solid, calm manner, arranged, in view of this difficulty, that each wife and mother shall speedily know the best or the worst about those who go to fight "with God, for King, and Fatherland." Slips of parchment, like luggage labels, have been prepared, on which the name of each German soldier is plainly written, and one of these will be fastened inside his coat when he goes into action. After the day is decided, the enemy, if he be master of the field, will be requested to collect and return these labels, of which about a million have been provided, grim tickets for an unknown journey! Think of the German wife or mother sewing it on—the battle ticket of her stake in the quarrel—the address of her particular "material of war," the awful traveling label whereon no loving hand may write, "With care," seeing that its bearer goes into the Valley of the Shadow, to come forth again or not as heaven shall decree. Sewn on with German thread, ripped off, perchance, with French knife, whole packets and parcels of these little human memoranda will surely be returned; but yet every man who buttons his coat over the label of death has looked his fate full into the face, and made himself "ready for the burial."

PROCLAMATION FROM GEO. TROCHU.

PARIS, August 21.—Gen. Trochu has issued another proclamation, the meaning of which is that Paris has to stand a siege. The following is the text.

"To the National Guard—To the Grade Mobile—To the Troops and Seaman in the Army of Paris—To all defenders of the Capital:

"In the midst of events of the highest importance. I have been appointed Governor. The honor is great, the peril also. I depend on your patriotism should Paris be subjected to a siege. Never was there a more favorable opportunity to prove to the world that long prosperity has not effeminated the country. You have before you the example of an army which has fought one against three. Their heroic struggle compels the admiration of all. Show by your conduct that you have feelings of profound responsibility resting upon you."

VICTORY AT FEARFUL COST.

(Special to the World.)

PONT AU MOUSSON, August 20, via LUXEMBOURG.—I witnessed the battle. The Prussians won at a fearful cost, mitrailleirs doing terrible work. Four villages and battle fields are still strown with dead. From the front I can see the French on Mont St. Quentin, overlooking Metz from the east. Metz is surrounded; and it looks as if preparations were being made by the Prussians for a siege. General Sheridan, from the King's headquarters, witnessed the battle. The King returned here last night, and the Crown Prince visited him to-day, coming from a direction which indicates that his forces are not far from Barle Due.

Later.

THE SITUATION—BAZAINE CUT OFF—MAC MAHON SURROUNDED—THE ADVANCE ON PARIS—NO TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION WITH PARIS.

LONDON, August 22.—It is said Bazaine is absolutely cut off from his resources. The Prussians are between him and Paris. MacMahon is also believed to be surrounded. Convoys with Prussians have gone forward to supply both armies. One hundred and sixty thousand men have passed through Paris to the front since Friday morning. It is generally thought here, however, that the Prussians cannot be checked.

PONT-A-MOUSSON, August 22.—Prussian scouting parties have occupied St. Dizier on the Marne. Advices announce that the Crown Prince's command is near St. Dizier, with the evident intention of marching on Paris via the Valley of Aube, thus striking Paris at the south. The Crown Prince's command is said to be 150,000 strong.

PARIS, August 22.—The camp at Chalonssure-Marne has been raised, and the troops are now posted along the line of the river Marne.

LONDON, August 22.—The Paris Journal Officiel states that no news has been received from the army of the Rhine for two days on account of the interruption of the telegraph, which it is believed has been cut by the Prussians. It also states that in the absence of adverse intelligence and a silence regarding Bazaine's movements, induces a belief that though his plans have not yet succeeded, the heroic conduct of the troops and their bravery as shown in the encounters with overwhelming forces, gives hope of the ultimate success of his operations.

THE CROWN PRINCE WINS A GREAT BATTLE.

The Crown Prince has won another victory in a great battle before Chalons. The Prussians are victorious everywhere and the French defeat complete.

THREE CHEERS FOR GERMANY.—Pope Pius IX. having offered in communications to Napoleon and King William to meditate between France and Prussia, the latter Sovereign has written in reply a letter, which will command the admiration of all nations. He offers to discontinue the war upon the simple assurance of "him who declared it" that the peace of Germany shall not again be interrupted. There is demanded no conditions such as the Conqueror has the right to dictate. No provinces are to be ceded as the fruits of conquest.—This magnanimity of Prussia's Sovereign will be not less applauded than the energy and skill of Prussia's Generals; and its very generosity places it out of the power of the French nation to reject it and maintain the respect of mankind.—Tribune.

The Spanish Republicans, out-generalled by Prim in the Cortes, are regaining their power since France and Prussia have come by the ears and Hohenzollern is no longer a candidate for Madrid. Their committee announce that the cause is strengthening rapidly. This indicates another attempt in Spain that will involve the alternation of the late constitution. And it comes when France has her hands full; at the instant when Mazini appears on the stage.

The corner-stone of the State Normal School, now in course of erection in West Chester, will be laid on Wednesday, September 14. Governor Geary, ex-Governor Pollock, Superintendent J. P. Wickersham, General Harry White, and other prominent gentlemen have been announced to be there on that day.

THE rebels of Florida have issued a call for a convention to nominate a State ticket; but have not the courage to call themselves Democrats. "Representatives of Conservatism and friends of Reform" are the modest titles under which they propose to conduct their campaign.

Pic-Nic.—The Logan Fire Company of this place held a pic-nic on Thursday the 18th inst. It was a complete success. On Thursday morning, headed by the Unionville Marshal Band, they paraded the principal streets, dressed in their new uniforms, making an excellent appearance. About 10 o'clock they repaired to the grove on Hon. Samuel Linns farm, where a platform for dancing purposes had been erected, and every other preparation made for the enjoyment of the firemen and their friends. At 1 o'clock a magnificent dinner was served. There was plenty for all. Every body was satisfied, and every body present felt remarkerbly well, having a very good opinion of himself and of mankind generally.

Ice cream and Ice cold lemonade was in great demand, and the supply was abundant. The order throughout the day and night was remarkably good and redounds greatly, to the credit of the young and enterprising members of the company. Quite a number of the Altoona firemen were present. They were a fine looking set of men, and by their manly conduct and genteel deportment while here, not only honored themselves, but the thriving young City of Altoona. B. F. Rose, Jas. A. Smith, Joseph Dougherty, Charles McCauley, Edward Mountney, Holliday Ewing and Alex. Findley, constituted the board of Directors of the Altoona fire departments.

The Pic-nic was a success in every way and we are pleased to learn that financially the company realized well.

The following card will speak for itself.

Bellefonte, Pa., August 19th, 1870.

A CARD.

The Company feel themselves bound in honor to attain to the greatest possible efficiency in protecting the property of our citizens, and in maintaining towards them the most cordial feelings and in co-operating with them in every way.

By order of the company.

Resolved, That we shall publish these Resolutions in our Bellefonte Journals and will furnish copies to the officers of the Altoona Fire Department.

Attest: A. B. HUTCHISON, President.
Morrison Secretary.

For the Republican.

Messrs. Editors:

Always having a desire to visit the lower end of Centre county, and the opportunity presenting last week, we started for Rebersburg, in Brush Valley. We had no difficulty in finding Prof. Magee, who, although thoroughly engaged in his educational duties, found time enough to show us around the town. The Professor has in operation a County Normal school, which will no doubt be of inestimable service to those of our teachers who avail themselves of the opportunities here presented of having the theory and practice of teaching, thoroughly demonstrated. The sessions of the Normal school are held during the regular summer vacation of the common schools, and continue ten weeks. There are now some seventy teachers in attendance, and they are, without exception, the best looking pupils we ever saw. Of course this has special reference to those who sit on the right hand side during school hours, and who board in the upper end of town.

Prof. Magee is having a series of lectures delivered before the school on Friday evening of each week during the session, and it was our pleasure to be present at the delivery of one, by A. B. Hutchison, Esq., of Bellefonte. His subject was "The Liberty of the Mind," and it certainly was a well chosen subject; a well delivered and very interesting lecture. His line of reasoning was that children should be taught to think—taught that they have minds and reasoning powers of their own, and that in the exercise of these powers they should be taught to rise above bigotry and prejudice. They should form their own opinions, and hold to them until convinced that they were wrong, irrespective of public opinion, which, as he truly said, was often manufactured in a printing office in twenty minutes. He was an hour and a half in delivering his lecture, and from the fact that his audience listened very attentively we know they were well pleased. Capt. Hutchison expressed himself to us as being highly pleased with his visit.

The Normal School is certainly a success, and under the able management of Prof. Magee, it will live when its enemies are unknown. * * *

Celebration.—The Upper Marion U. S. S., contemplating the holding of a celebration, upon invitation, the Zion and Jacksonville schools assembled on the appointed day Saturday, Aug. 13th, at the school house. The Marion school escorted the others in and when, all in readiness, at the command of the marshal-in-chief they took up their march for the pleasant grove of the gentlemanly owner Mr. E. Zimmerman. The grounds were nicely arranged and when all seated the Jacksonville school joined the Marion in discoursing an opening hymn lead by the Messrs. Weaver Bro's—instrumental and vocal.

Prayer by Rev. D. M. Wolf.

Rev. Millet was then called upon for an address not to exceed ten minutes. He beautifully portrayed the subject of "Pearl of great Price," greatly to the interest of children and others; after which they marched to the table richly laden, which reflects honor to those interested.

Dinner had not been served to all when suddenly the heavens opened, the rain descended and great was the confusion thereby. Ladies quietly submitted to "crawl" underneath the table—children were missing, and when the rain abated the neighboring barns and sheds were overflowing with females arrayed in white. There were eight hundred persons in attendance. Everything was nicely arranged and great pleasure was anticipated; but alas! 'twas to soon brought to an end.

Enterprise.—Hiram Lucas & Bro., Howard Borough Pa. continue to keep at their fancy and variety store everything in their line for the accomodation of their customers. They also deal in Bituminous and Anthracite coal, which they at all times sell as low as it can be afforded in this market. They are honest energetic men and deserve success.

Groceries.—Our friend Levi. A. Miller, has just received a large supply of Groceries, Cheese, Hams, Syrups, &c., which he is now offering at remarkably low prices. Levi says he will not be undersold, and declares, that he will keep nothing but goods of the very best quality. Levi has also opened an extensive tobacco and Segar store on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop st., nearly opposite his Grocery. His Segars and tobacco are of the very best quality. The patronage of the community is earnestly and respectfully solicited.

NEWS FROM OTHER COUNTIES.

Blair County.—The Blade, a reliable and spicy Republican paper published in Tyrone, congratulates itself upon its constantly increasing subscription list. We are glad to hear this, and wish the Blade great success. It deserves it.

.....A difficulty occurred a few days ago in Tyrone, between certain parties and the Burgess, relative to a certain piece of ground claimed as an alley. More land is what makes nearly all the troubles in this world. France wants a little slice more from Prussia.

.....Mr. Williams, an aged citizen of Tyrone, fell from a building being erected on Logan street, from which he sustained serious injury; but, says the Blade, we are informed that he is recovering rapidly as the circumstances of the case will admit.

.....A large delegation left Tyrone last week, to attend the West Branch Camp Meeting, which commenced at Wayne Station on Tuesday the 16th inst. We hope they will be benefitted by their attendance.

.....It is a remarkable fact, says the Standard, that when some men allow a newspaper bill to run three or four years they are invariably astonished that it should be so large. As a general thing such individuals intimate that they "will be down in a day or two and see about it." But they never come, and that is a part of the philosophy most disagreeable to us.

.....Mr. John Deafenbaugh, proprietor of the Sinking Valley Tannery, this county, while engaged in oiling machinery, was caught by his left arm under one of the belts, and was thrown over a wheel, striking the floor violently on his head and neck, breaking his left arm, and injuring his back and both legs. He is in a critical condition.

....On Tuesday of last week, during a heavy storm of rain, the chimney of the dwelling of Mr. David Shellenbarger, Williamsburg, was struck by lightning and considerably shattered. Mrs. S., who was in the house, was stunned, but not seriously injured.

.....We have at our office a horned toad, sent to us from Austin, Texas, by our friend Col. L. Lowry Moore. It came in a small paper box, and was about twelve days on the way. After being warmed up it commenced running about quite lively. The Colonel caught it in front of his dwelling, and says that they are perfectly harmless, and live upon small insects, flies, ants, &c. It is quite a curiosity in this part of the country.

Clearfield County.—About 1 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, August 6th, a man by the name of Michael Creyton, a miner, was found dead near Houtzdale, in this county, and about three miles west of Osceola. On Sunday morning, at 9 o'clock, 'Squire Rogers, of Osceola, summoned a jury and held an inquest, when it was found that the skull of the unfortunate man was fractured, and several of his ribs broken. After a full investigation the jury rendered the following verdict, to wit: "That the deceased came to his death by the hands of some person, or persons, unknown." Why the murder was committed is, so far, a mystery, and the perpetrators of the deed are still unknown. It is to be hoped, however, that they may be discovered and the merited punishment inflicted.—Clearfield Journal.

.....The Fire-clay mania is prevailing extensively in this neighborhood. Some very good clay has been developed, and no doubt an extensive and profitable business will be the result. There is enormous wealth in our mountains. It only needs enterprise and perseverence to bring it out.

.....Hon. John Patton returned last week, says the Journal, from a trip across the continent. He is highly pleased with the Pacific Railroad, California, the Rocky Mountains, "Injuns," &c. If we had some of the scrip that the General could spare, we would take a trip, and give our opinion of the same.

.....One of the Assistant Marshals in this county, sent with his census returns to Marshal Murdock, the other day, eleven rattles, from a huge snake killed in his travels. The Marshal had previously learned that serpents abounded in this vicinity, but they were of the copperhead variety.

.....The supposed murderer of Creyton, named Timothy McCartney, was arrested on Thursday morning last, and lodged in our jail the same day. McCartney was the bar-tender for a man named Carter, at Houtsdale. Whether the evidence is sufficient to warrant his arrest and conviction, remains to be demonstrated. He will be tried at September Term.

.....We are not at liberty to give the exact official figures of the census, until the corrections have been made, and the schedules completed, which will not be until the middle of September. But this much we can say: that the Borough of Clearfield has doubled its population in the last ten years, a larger ratio of increase than any of our neighboring county towns can boast.

Huntingdon County.—We have in our office a head of Norway oats, raised by Mr. David Isenberg, of Henderson township, the head of which measures 25 inches, and contains 324 grains, all well developed. Ten dozen of large bind were raised by him from 10 lbs. sowed of this kind of oats.

.....Hon. John Scott delivered an address before the M. E. S. S. on Sunday last.

Completion of the Pacific Railroad.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERGS.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It headed the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

Chorus, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. Sternberg,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.

THE REPUBLICAN.

Wednesday Morning Aug. 24, 1870.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!

The Bellefonte REPUBLICAN and the "American Agriculturist."

We are now prepared to offer the people of Centre county, a Great Bargain for the coming year. It is this: To every subscriber who will send us $3.00 in advance, we will send the

BELLEFONTE "REPUBLICAN,"

and the

'AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST,'

for one year. Of the REPUBLICAN we need not speak at present.

The American Agriculturist is a work that, no farmer nor household keeper should be without. As a farm-journal we think it has no superior in the world—certainly none in the United States. It is issued monthly, and the subscription price is $1.50 per annum. By clubing with the REPUBLICAN you save fifty cents, and secure more good reading matter than you can obtain in any other way for the same money.

We hope the reading public will avail themselves of this very liberal offer.

The Pennsylvania Game Laws.

We print below, by request, the game laws of our State. Such laws have become necessary in all of the more thickly populated portions of the country, and it is every man's duty to denounce any infringment of them which may come to his notice. In many places through neglect of this, game of all kinds has been almost or altogether exterminated. Every farmer and fruit raiser should especially make it his business to see that insecti verous birds receive all the protection which the law affords.

1. It shall not be lawful for any person within this Commonwealth to shoot, kill or in any way trap or destroy any bluebird, swallow, martin or other insectiverous bird at any season of the year, under the penalty of two dollars.

2. No person shall shoot, kill or otherwise destroy any pheasant between the first day of January and the fourth day of July, or any partridge or rabbit between the first day of January and the first day of October, in the present year, and in each and every year thereafter, under the penalty of five dollars for each and every offense.

3. From June first to September first of each and every year thereafter, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to shoot, kill, trap or destroy rail-birds or reed-birds under the penal sum or five dollars with costs of prosecution for each and every offence, to be sued for and recovered before any magistrate in the county in which the offense was committed, one-half of the penalty for the use of the informer, who shall be a competent witness, the other half for the use of the poor of the district in which the offense was committed,

4. RULES OF ETIQUETTE.—Before you bow to a lady in the street, permit her to decide whether you may do so or not, by at least a look of recognition.

"Excuse my gloves" is an unnecessary apology, for the gloves should not be withdrawn to shake hands.

When your companion bows to a lady, you should do so also. When a gentleman bows to a lady in your company, always bow to him in return.

A letter must be answered, unless you wish to intimate to the writer that he or his subject is beneath you notice.

A visit must be returned in like manner, even though no intimacy is intended.

A smiling countenance is pleasant, but excess of laughter should be avoided, especially when it is possible for any one to suppose himself derided by it.

Whispering in company is always offensive, and often for the reason that persons present suspect that they are the subject of it.

Charles E. Pugh, for many years assistant in the office of G. C. Francisus, General Agent of the P. R. R. has been appointed to the office rendered vacant by the death of Mr. F.—

Fowls For General Purposes.

Everything taken into consideration I believe there is no better fowl than the Brahma. They are good layers both summer and winter and I think will thrive on as little feed as any breed we have which I am acquainted with. I have a flock of about eighty light Pea Comb Brahmas, which I give only one-half car of corn once a day, and the scraps from the table and they have laid all winter. They are a very easy fowl to raise and very hardy.

The Brahma is a good setter and mother, and for a table fowl they have no equal. Their flesh is very white, tender and juicy, and full as good for the epicure, in my opinion, as a turkey and a good fair Brahma is large as a small turkey, weighing at maturity from eight to fourteen pounds. The Brahma when well bred is a handsome fowl; take a flock of about seventy five Brahmas on the lawn pasturing, and they look more like a flock of sheep than fowls, and then to see them marching into the roost at nightfall, one after another, is a sight worth seeing.

They are a very docile fowl and bear confinement well, for they are not of a roving nature. They cannot fly over a common board fence, for their bodies are heavy and their wings very short and rounding at the point, so that they cannot support the body.

But still there are other fowls with good points as well as the Brahma, but my honest opinion is that the pure Brahma is fairly entitled to the claim to have more of them than any other breed of fowls we have, and if any of our readers have any breeds which they think are better than the Pure Light Pea Brahma, everything taken into consideration, we would like to hear from them.—Western Farmer.

Number Of Nails To The Pound.

The following table shows the number of nails to the pound, in different sizes from "3-penny" up to '20-penny' as well as the number of the several size, the second the length in inches, and the third the number to the pound:

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 3 penny | 1 | inch long | 557 | to | lb. |
| 4 " | 1¼ | " | 355 | " | " |
| 5 " | 1¾ | " | 302 | " | " |
| 6 " | 2 | " | 167 | " | " |
| 7 " | 2¼ | " | 141 | " | " |
| 8 " | 2½ | " | 101 | " | " |
| 10 " | 2¾ | " | 88 | " | " |
| 12 " | 3 | " | 54 | " | " |
| 10 " | 3½ | " | 34 | " | " |
| Spikes | 4 | " | 16 | " | " |
| " | 4½ | " | 12 | " | " |
| " | 5 | " | 10 | " | " |
| " | 6 | " | 7 | " | " |

From this table an estimate of quantity and suitable sizes for any job can be easily made.

WHEN board fences become old and the boards begin to come off, nail upright facing strips upon them so as to keep them tight against each post, and the fence will last several years longer. Always set a fence post over a ditch, or near a good drainage, and the post will always remain dry and will last many years longer than those standing in wet sub-soil.

From manuscripts recently discovered, it appears that Robert Fulton had ideas of floating batteries propelled by steam. One document, dated at New London, January 3, 1814, shows the certain models of vessels to carry heavy guns supplied by him had been examined and approved by a special committee composed of United States naval officers.

THE GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.

MORE THAN 500,000 PERSONS Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey Proof Spirits, and Refuse Liquors, doctored spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkeness and ruin, but are a true medicine made from the native Roots and Herbs of California free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and Life Giving Principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator, of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, these Bitters have no equal. For full directions read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French, and Spanish.

J. WALKER, Prop'r, 32 Commerce, St., N. Y. R. A. McDONALD & CO., Druggist, and general Agents, San Francisco and Sacramento, California, and 32 & 34 Commerce St., N. Y.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. v2n31-4t.

They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion, or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the General Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much confobled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so facinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption! The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to cold and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgements we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remidies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either residence in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the Ague Cure daily.

For Liver Complaints, arise from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.
